

SUPERIOR COURT OF SIMULATED SLEEP COUNTY
BEDROOM DISTRICT - CIVIL DIVISION

TIRED SIBLING, Plaintiff, v. THE WALL KICKER, Defendant.	Case No. WKD-2026-0347 SIMULATED CIVIL COMPLAINT FOR WALL-KICK NUISANCE Assigned for simulation to: Hon. Marsha Quiet, J.S.C.
--	---

SIMULATED DOCUMENT. This PDF is generated for the Wall Kick Defender Court Simulator. It is fictional, not legal advice, not a real pleading, and not intended for filing in any court.

Plaintiff alleges the following for purposes of the Court Simulator:

1. Parties

1. Plaintiff Tired Sibling is a resident of the bedroom adjacent to the shared wall at issue.
2. Defendant The Wall Kicker is the person alleged to have repeatedly kicked, struck, stomped near, or otherwise transmitted force through the shared wall during sleep hours.

2. Jurisdiction and Venue

3. This simulated court has fictional jurisdiction because the alleged impacts occurred within Simulated Sleep County and because the wall, while neutral, is tired of being involved.
4. Venue is simulated as proper in the Bedroom District because the evidence packet was generated on Plaintiff side of the wall.

3. Factual Allegations

5. On or about April 1, 2026, at approximately 3:47:12 AM, the Wall Kick Defender device recorded a 0.92 G impact event on the shared wall.
6. The device preserved a local speaker-side receipt clip, vibration fingerprint, AI confidence score, and time stamp. The system did not place hardware in Defendant room.
7. Plaintiff alleges that Defendant was previously warned that wall impacts were waking Plaintiff and interrupting sleep cycles.
8. Plaintiff further alleges that Defendant stated the impact was caused by stretching, gravity, or the wall moving first, none of which explains the matching vibration trace.

4. Claims for Relief

9. Count I - Private Nuisance, simulated: repeated wall impacts allegedly interfered with Plaintiff use and enjoyment of sleep.
10. Count II - Negligent Nocturnal Impact, simulated: Defendant allegedly failed to exercise reasonable quiet after notice.
11. Count III - Declaratory Relief, simulated: Plaintiff seeks a finding that the kicker can be sued in court when receipt evidence is preserved.

5. Prayer for Simulated Relief

12. Plaintiff requests simulated damages for lost sleep, replacement plaster, morning yawns, and emotional drywall distress.
13. Plaintiff requests an order requiring Defendant to stop kicking the wall, walk quieter, and stop saying the wall started it.
14. Plaintiff requests any further simulated relief the Court deems just, petty, and tabbed.
