

SUPERIOR COURT OF SIMULATED SLEEP COUNTY
BEDROOM DISTRICT - CIVIL DIVISION

TIRED SIBLING, Plaintiff, v. THE WALL KICKER, Defendant.	Case No. WKD-2026-0347 SIMULATED PROPOSED ORDER AFTER MOCK HEARING Assigned for simulation to: Hon. Marsha Quiet, J.S.C.
--	--

SIMULATED DOCUMENT. This PDF is generated for the Wall Kick Defender Court Simulator. It is fictional, not legal advice, not a real pleading, and not intended for filing in any court.

Having reviewed the simulated complaint, exhibit binder, records declaration, and the deeply suspicious phrase "was stretching," the Court Simulator makes the following mock findings:

1. The Wall Kick Defender packet contains sufficient simulated foundation to proceed in the mock hearing.
2. The vibration fingerprint, speaker receipt, and sleep tracker graph are mutually reinforcing for game purposes.
3. The defendant explanation is admitted for comedic weight and assigned limited credibility.
4. The plaintiff has shown, by a preponderance of the vibes, that repeated wall impacts can support a fictional claim.
5. The simulator therefore finds that the kicker can be sued in court in the Wall Kick Defender universe, subject to real-world legal advice from a real lawyer outside this PDF.

IT IS THEREFORE SIMULATEDLY ORDERED that Defendant shall stop kicking the wall, stop blaming drywall, and treat the 2008 Nokia ringtone as notice of consequences.

Dated: April 1, 2026

Hon. Marsha Quiet, J.S.C.
Judge of the Court Simulator
